Democratic Address of the West Virginia Convention.

To the People of West Virginia:

We invite your attention to a review of the general political situation, its evils, and their remedy. Since 1861 the harmony of this nation has been sadly disturbed. For four years of the intervening time, the interruption of peaceful relations was due to a state of war. The practical disunion existing since 1865 is referable to a course of Congressional action, wicked in motive, illegal in character, and ruinous in result. While the war for the Union was in progress, its successful issue was anticipated as the guaranty of prompt reunion and permanent peace. Such a consummation was the aim of patriotic efforts in the field, the object of solemn pledges in the halls of Congress, and the confident expectation of the masses of the people. The war has long since ended. The rebellion has long since been crushed. Every obstacle placed by Southern movement in the way of the nation's unity has long since been removed. Nevertheless, disappointment waits upon the people's wish. The pledges of Congress have been repudiated. The triumphs of our armies have been neutralized, and the purposes of the brave men who secured them have been shamefully defeated. A dissolution more disastrous than that now existing between the Southern States and the Federal government could scarcely have been brought about by the success of the rebellion. A condition of affairs so much at variance with the wishes and interest of the people of our entire country demands a reference to the acts and aims of those who produce it.

CONGRESSIONAL RECONSTRUCTION.

For more than two years the Southern States have desired to renew their old relations to the government. Congress has constantly prevented that resumption. They are entitled to be restored upon the basis of the federal constitution. Congress has confessedly thrown aside that instrument, and obstructed restoration with terms and conditions of its own prescribing. Affecting to desire the perpetuity of the Republic, it has made a deadly assault upon republican institutions. Professing to aim at the salvation of the Union, it has wrought the destruction of ten of the States. The right of each State to regulate its own internal affairs, enfranchise its own voters, and choose its own rulers and law-makers, is as sacred as our constitution, and as indestructible as our government. Without it republican liberty is worthless, for when the people cease to be free citizens of the States they become the subjects of unlimited and irresponsible federal power. When Congress abolished the local government of the South, it violated a vital principle in our system. When it erected military establishments in their stead, it introduced the most abominable features of despotism. In further pursuance of its purposes, Congress has thrown the political power of the South into negro hands. To assure this result, it has disfranchised the white population by hundreds of thousands. Enfranchising the blacks, it has made voters of the ignorant, vicious and the brutal; legislators of those who regard liberty as license, and law as the instrument of revenge; and rulers of a class whose ideas of government, like their notions of religion, tend directly and inevitably to barbarism.

MILITARY GOVERNMENT AND ITS RESULTS.

Having given the negro the right to vote and the power to rule, Congress confesses his incompetency for either by insisting that the bayonet of the soldier, the disfranchisement of the citizen, and the supervision of the Freedmen's Bureau are necessary to sustain him in his new relations. By such declarations the dominant party would justify the continuance of military despotism erected within the Southern States. Before we sanction this iniquity, let us examine its results. It found civil governments in successful operation: it abolished those governments, and made the will of brigadier generals supreme for all purposes. Southern elections are ordered, supervised and approved or set aside by district commanders. Southern justice is what the bayonet may provide. Southern law is what the sword may decree. Southern peace is the patient submission of a conquered people; a peace threatened by impending negro insurrections, which white seditionists are inciting, and liable at any moment to disappear before the terrible tumult of social anarchy. The military government found business reviving, and enterprise struggling to repair the ravages of the war. They abolished labor, and offered army rations as a premium on negro idleness. The country cease to produce, and trade and commerce with other sections perished. Capital left a land which promised soon to be given over to confiscation. General poverty followed the encouraged indolence of the laboring classes. Actual and almost universal destitution exists among the people; the unhappy victims of Congressional cruelty must become pensioners upon national charity or perish from starvation. Hordes of thriftless and discontented negroes, passionate almost to brutality, induced to vice by idleness, incited to violence by evil counsellors, fed and pampered at the public cost, with a great army for their protection, roam at will throughout the land upon a mission of evil, carrying dismay to the hearts of helplessness and innocence, and shocking civilization with the worst of nameless crimes. Such is the condition of the South. A military despotism is over her people. The hand of lawless violence threatens them. Desolation reigns on every hand. About them are the graves of their countless dead. The past is strewn with the wreck of their greatness. Present suffering surrounds them. Their future is thick with peril and dark with gathering misfortune. The foes of the nation are at her feet. Broken in spirit, stripped of fortune, wasted, ragged, wretched and ruined, their situation invoked the magnanimity of kindred manhood and appeals to the generous mercy of a noble enemy.

DISTRESS AT THE SOUTH PRODUCES PROSTRATION AT THE NORTH.

The evil influence of bayonet reconstruction is not confined to the South. The entire country feels it. Northern factories are silent because Southern pockets are empty. Western granaries and storehouses are full, but poverty possesses their ancient market, and their former buyers are now begging bread. A commercial crash is imminent and business stands still and trembles at the prospect. The manufacturing interests of the nation are crippled and almost crushed. The spindle is motionless; the shuttle is silent; the forge and the furnace are deserted; the workshop is vacant; the mill is closed. The hands of the artisan are unemployed and empty; his children are starving, homeless and in rags. The impoverishment of the South throws the entire burden of taxation upon the North and West. The Southern States can render no assistance while the government grinds them with an iron heel. If their people shared its benefits they would be impelled to productive ability. As they partake only of its severities, they could not support it if they would, and so long as it oppresses them, if they are fit to be freedmen, they would not support it if they could.

THE CONGRESSIONAL PURPOSE.

The declarations of leading Republicans in Congress leave no room to doubt that the action of that body has been taken with reference to the unity of the Radical party, rather than the unity of the American Republic. The National Legislature has become a mere machine for the manufacture of radical majorities. Its material is the worst and lowest class of humanity, barely rescued from the brutality of the savage state by contact with civilization. A system which is based upon negro stupidity, supported by bayonets and designed to secure partisan triumphs through the enslavement of men of our own race, may be instituted here through force and fraud, but if it can endure in this land the American people have learned liberty to no purpose and well deserve to be taught its value under the stern tutelage of tyranny which awaits them in the future of radical supremacy.

FINANCIAL AFFAIRS.

In its management of our financial affairs, the dominant party has enacted the grossest folly and injustice. Repeated contraction of the currency have caused incalculable commercial disasters. A still more dangerous measure of contraction is now proposed in the Senate, by which the legal tenders are to be withdrawn from circulation and replaced by interest bearing bonds. If property and business do not enter an effective protest, the results will be little short of general ruin.

THE NATIONAL DEBT.

The national debt amounts to $2,500,000,000. It cost the holders $1,250,000,000. The party in power would pay it in gold, dollar for dollar. They would give to the bondholders a currency different from and better than that used by the people. Specie for the money lenders and paper for the masses is the end of their financial policy. A discrimination so palpable and unfair is an insult to the popular sense of justice. By the terms of the act of issue, greenbacks are made legal tender for all debts, public and private, except duties on imports and interest on the public debt. Even the soldiers of the Republic accepted paper as the price of their toils and hardships. Is the patriotism of cash more valuable than the public devotion, which fights and bleeds, and dies? Labor receives its wages in paper; the products of the farm, the goods of the merchant, professional fees, all prices and values among the people, are paid in paper. If that kind of money is good for the masses, good to buy all things, from the sweat of labor to the blood of valor, why should it not suffice for the redemption of the Federal securities?

EXEMPTION OF THE BONDS.

Under Radical management, the bonds are exempt from taxation. Receiving from the government the same protection with their property, they pay not a dollar to its support. Such exclusive privilege establishes an aristocracy of money in the midst of a Republic of labor. Toil is taxed; bonds are exempt. Toil produces; bonds consume. Toil builds our public improvements; bondholders enjoy their benefits at no cost. Toil supports our courts, pays our legislators, and defrays the general expenses of the government; bondholders partake of the blessings of all and contribute to the sustenance of none. A policy which makes labor so completely tributary to capital is anti-republican in its effect upon the masses. We greatly mistake the temper of the people if they do not demand that this wrong be promptly righted by such repeals and enactments as will compel all property alike to share the burdens of taxation.

THE REVENUE SYSTEM.

Radicalism derives the bulk of the Federal revenue from home productions and the necessaries of life. Over sixteen thousand articles, including almost everything that supports life or lightens labor, are now the subjects of taxation. Hence the great disparity between wages and the cost of living. Frauds upon the revenue are another characteristic of the present system. The laws are evaded, the officers are bribed; the country is robbed. Over one hundred millions of dollars were lost last year through downright villainy, and the deficiencies of wealthy knaves must be made good by toiling honesty.

WHERE THE MONEY GOES.

A large portion of the taxes now raised is applied to worse than useless purposes. The Freedmen's Bureau costs twelve millions annually, a sum equal to the entire yearly expense of the government under some of the earlier administrations. That institution feeds, clothes and supports a host of malignant Southern haters, negro fanatics and greedy adventurers, backed by the federal army. It has done more to breed bitterness and discontent among the Southern people than the war itself. The military establishments at the South are another kind of useless and extravagant expenditure. It is costing from sixty to one hundred millions annually.—High Radical authority estimates that it will take ten years to reconstruct the South by the present process. The lowest possible amount for which this partisan enterprise can be completed will be eight hundred millions of dollars. Are the people of this nation to be impoverished, in order that the days of niggerism and fanatacism may be long in the land? Are the masses of the country to be mercilessly taxed, robbed and ruined, in order that corruption may prosper, love of power be satisfied, and the supremacy of Radicalism be assured? We look for such a response to these questions as will wipe out the abominations of the bayonet, restore civil and constitutional governments to the South, exclude the African element from the sphere of politics, and re-establish the American Union upon the ancient foundations of equal justice and popular affection.

A REMEDY POSSIBLE.

Let us recur to the remedy for the manifold wrongs to which we have referred. The reconstruction question, whatever difficulties it may present to bitter partisans, is capable of a safe and easy adjustment through the exercise of an honest and liberal patriotism. The simple application of the principles of the Federal Constitution will remove every obstacle and effect a peaceful, permanent, and satisfactory settlement. If that instrument possesses the perfection with which every lover of his country invests it, it will not be found wanting at the critical juncture. The Constitution which has blessed the people with liberty and crowned this land with greatness will not now prove inadequate to the designs of its authority and leave the vital interests of the Union at the mercy of rude chances and political passions. Let its provisions be applied, and representatives of the South, elected by the only qualified voters of that section, will take their seats in Congress, subject only to the condition imposed upon members from other parts of the land; the natural relations between the Southern States and the General Government will be resumed, and the Union of the States, triumphantly restored, will return in form, in fact, and freedom to the original glory of her first and best estate. The restoration of the South will open the way to great financial relief. When her people are relieved of the domination of the bayonets and the blacks, they will be encouraged to productive pursuits; general prosperity will revive their palsied energies, and their assistance will be happily felt in removing the great burden of debt which now impedes the national progress. The costly national nuisance, the Freedmen's Bureau, will be abolished, and common sense having mastered the situation will decree that negroes, like white men, must either work or starve. The expensive Southern military establishment will be acknowledged unnecessary, and with their disappearance tax-payers will thank God and take courage. A fair taxation of the Federal securities will yield many millions of revenue. The national banks suggest another opportunity of retrenchment. They own between three and four hundred millions in Federal bonds, upon which they draw interest. These bonds are deposited with the Government, and for every $100,000 so deposited, they receive $90,000 in national bank notes. These notes constitute their circulation, and with them they carry on the business, and earn the profits of banking proper. The interest accruing on their deposited bonds is so much premium paid them, in addition to the regular earnings of their business. They receive the benefit of just ninety per cent. more capital than they have invested, and this gratuitous premium comes from the pockets of the people. Justice requires that this sum amounting to between twenty and thirty millions annually, be saved to the public. The simple process of recalling the national bank notes and substituting for the bonds legal tenders as banking currency will effect the needed result, and another sinkhole for the earnings of laborers will be effectually stopped. In the matter of revenue, fewer articles could be taxed, and through a more perfect and more honest mode of assessment and collection, much larger returns could be realized. Congressional extravagance and corruption should be reformed. Investigating committees should be abolished. Land grants and railroad swindles should be abandoned. The Indian wars, like the last, should be avoided. Terrestrial purchases should be suspended. Countless other modes of waste and fraud could be corrected, and a portion of the savings set aside for the final redemption of the debt. A sinking fund for this purpose, made up of bond taxation, the premium paid the national banks and the money wasted in Africanizing the South, would redeem every dollar of the debt in less than twenty years. The way to this desired end could be opened by the substitution of legal tenders for the bonds as rapidly as may be consistent with safety. Millions now paid in interest would thus be economized, and, with the aid of a restored and producing South, the end of our financial troubles would speedily approach.

CONCLUSION.

Having thus attempted to set forth your wrongs, and the possibility of a remedy, we now appeal to you to work out the needed reformation. Whatever evils may result from bad government, the people are the sufferers. Whatever reforms are effected must be brought about by and through the people themselves. The people have it in their power to remove the giant iniquities whose shadows darken the land. They have but to speak, and the enemies of their peace would be powerless, the dignity of the constitution and the laws will be vindicated, and their now imperilled country rescued from impending danger, purified and strengthened by its trials, will resume its majestic march in the paths of greatness, happiness and freedom. A movement has been inaugurated in this city for the organization of the friends of law and order and honest government, as against the forces of Radicalism in West Virginia. The movement will extend to every county; it will find co-operation in every township and school district in the State. We invite and urge you to join hands in the great work of political redemption.

Other States have taken the lead and are already enjoying the first fruits of victory. From Connecticut to California, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, the people have interchanged the tidings of deliverance, and both oceans have heard their wild shout of gladness and triumph. The Central States of Ohio and Pennsylvania have responded with glorious deeds that yet thrill the nation. The Empire State has arisen with a mighty proclamation for the right, and the manifestation of her power, like the restless march of a conquering host, points out the path of destiny and bids the nation follow. Already we hear the footsteps of approaching political revolution. It is advancing with an energy that gives assurance of its triumphant progress even unto the end.—Let the people of Virginia fall in with the hosts that move to the rescue of our government and its institutions. While others are fighting and triumphing, let them, too, participate in the struggle and contribute to the result. We invoke your aid in your own behalf, in behalf of good government, and the attendant blessings of justice, liberty and progress. Unite for the restoration of your lost prosperity. Labor for the overthrow of organized fanaticism, corruption and folly. Act, act, act for the sake of peace, Union, freedom and humanity.

PLAN OF ORGANIZATION OF THE CONSERVATIVE PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

STATE ORGANIZATION.

A State Committee, to consist of a chairman and thirty members—six of whom shall reside in Raleigh and three in each judicial district—to be appointed by the State Convention.

The committee shall have power to maintain its organization by filling vacancies, &c., and shall take charge of all matters relating to organization, registrations, &c., and a proper canvass of the State.

DISTRICT ORGANIZATION.

The members of the State Committee in each judicial district shall constitute a district Committee for their respective districts and shall appoint a Chairman, and shall take charge of all matters relating to county organization, &c., in their respective districts; and shall report all matters relating thereto, to the Chairman of the State Committee.

COUNTY ORGANIZATION.

It is recommended that each County, by popular meetings or through the medium of existing organization, appoint a County Committee, to consist of at least two persons from each Captain's District within its limits.

The County Committee shall take charge of all matters of registration, local organization, &c., within the County, and is requested to make monthly reports to the Chairman of the District Committee, and when necessary, to inform him of such local matters as may require the attention of the District Committee.

It is further recommended that each County Committee cause to be enrolled the names of all the registered voters of their county, who are willing to act and vote with this organization—no man to be thus enrolled without his express consent; and, also, that they cause to be enrolled on a separate list the names of all those who are entitled to register, but who have not done so, and that they use every exertion to secure their registration and active co-operation.

PLATFORM.

The Conservative people of North Carolina, having by their delegates assembled in Convention at Raleigh, on the 5th of February, 1868, to consider the present anomalous condition of the State, and of the country, and to consult together upon the grievances which now afflict and threaten them, and the course of action proper to be adopted in the trying circumstances which surround them, do resolve and declare

1. Our unalterable devotion to the principles of Constitutional liberty, and our fealty to the government of the United States, as set forth in the Federal Constitution. That we sincerely and in good faith accept the legitimate and legal results of the late war, and do hereby reiterate our oft repeated declaration, that we most heartily desire peace and concord with our sister States, and with the entire people of the United States.

2. Resolved, That regarding the Constitution of the United States as the source of all power in the administration of the government, and that the powers of the Executive, Legislative and Judicial department are equal and co-ordinate, as defined by that instrument, we do respectfully and solemnly protest against the enforcement upon our people, of the Reconstruction Acts, and policy of Congress, as unconstitutional, unwise and destructive to society, and violative of that great principle of American politics, that each State shall have the exclusive control of its own internal offices.

3. Resolved, That it is the opinion of this Convention that the great and all absorbing issue, now soon to be presented to the people of the State, is negro suffrage and negro equality, if not supremacy, and whether hereafter in North Carolina and the South, the white man is to be placed politically and, as a consequence, socially, upon a footing of equality with the negro, and, in many localities, subject to his government as a superior. That we are utterly opposed to such change in our government and in our social relations, and that we do hereby earnestly recommend to the people of the State to manfully meet the issue now attempted to be forced upon them, and to use every proper measure within their power to avert the impending mischief.

4. Resolved, That while we are unalterably opposed to political and social equality with the black race, we yet have no unjust prejudicies against that race, that we are determined, by just laws, to protect them fully in all their civil rights, and to confer upon them all privileges which can be done consistently with the safety and welfare of both races.

5. Resolved, That the distressed and impoverished condition of our people earnestly demands the speediest and wisest measures of relief that the Legislature can devise.

6. Resolved, That this Convention recognizes, with feelings of gratitude, the heroic and patriotic efforts of the President of the United States, to restore the Union and harmony and good will among the American people.

7. Resolved, That this Convention regards the Supreme Court of the United States as the legitimate expounder in the last resort of the Constitution—and believe that its rights and powers, in that respect, should be preserved intact as established by law in the earlier and better days of the republic, and that any serious impairment thereof, by legislation or otherwise, will be destructive to the best interests of the country, and dangerous to the liberties of the people.

8. Resolved, That despairing of any restoration of the Southern States under the conduct of that organization which now controls the proceedings of Congress, waiving all former party feeling and prejudice, this Convention does most unhesitatingly recommend and invite the hearty co-operation of all the good people of North Carolina with the Democrats, and Conservative men of the North and West, who are now nobly struggling for the maintenance of the Constitution of the United States, and the restoration of the Southern States to their rights in the Union, on the solid foundation of harmony and peace.

9. Resolved, That this Convention elect four delegates and four alternates for the State at large, to represent the conservative people of North Carolina in the next Democratic National Convention, and that it recommend to the conservative people of the several Congressional Districts, to appoint delegates at an early day to represent them in said Convention.

10. Resolved, That when an election shall be ordered for the ratification of a new State Constitution, the Executive Committee for the State, hereafter to be appointed by this Convention, be instructed, if the time shall be sufficient to call a Convention of the Conservative people of the State, to put in nomination candidates for the various State offices whose election shall then be ordered, and if there shall not be sufficient time to call said Convention, to put in nomination sound Conservative men for said office.

WM. A. HEARNE, JNO. W. DUNHAM,
EDITORS.

Raleigh, Sunday, March 8, 1868.

THE leaders and the presses of the Radical party in North Carolina are earnestly striving to produce division and dissensions among her white citizens, by insidious appeals to the very worst passions of our natures. To accomplish this purpose they have been profuse in their professions of friendship for those whom they style the "poor whites" and have been bitter and vindictive in their denunciations of others whom they call aristocrats. The object of all this demagogism is apparent. They hope by dividing to defeat us, and fasten upon us for years, a constitution, which the good judgment of the people of the State, if unbiased by passion or prejudice, would unhesitatingly condemn.

These agrartans and disorganizers have mistaken the people with whom they have to deal. The white men of North Carolina are not to be deluded by any such ungenerous and unholy argument as that they use.

We recognize no aristocracy save that of intellect and worth, and to these we yield willing homage, whether they be found in the palace of the millionaire or in the cabin of the laborer, and this we believe to be the sentiment of our people generally.

We propose to show that the professions of this Radical party are false and deceptive, judging it by its own conduct. We alluded yesterday to the action of the convention relative to the common schools of the State; and drew therefrom a legitimate deduction that they intended either to deny to white children the benefits of that system, or else to force them into association with negroes. Upon what class of our citizens will this exclusion fall? Evidently not upon the rich, for they will be able to educate their children in schools of their own choosing, but it will operate to the injury of the children of poor men, whose condition will not allow them to send their offspring to other institutions than public ones.

This is Radical friendship put into practice. We denounce the entire scheme as insulting to our people, rich and poor alike; as an attempt to establish the most perfect equlity between the races, and we call upon every white man in the State to do his duty in this crisis, and assist in the defeat of a constitution so repugnant to justice and gentility.

THE nation awaits with anxiety the decision of the freemen of New Hampshire upon the great questions in issue between the Democratic and Republican parties of the country. This is the first of the State elections in 1868, and occurs on Tuesday next, the 10th inst. The campaign has been ably and vigorously prosecuted. Men, eminent for their abilities generally, and especially for their talents as popular speakers, have visited all sections of the State, addressing large assemblies upon the political topics now engaging the public mind. Both parties claim that they will carry the State and submit figures in establishment of the assertion. The Republican candidate is Gen. Walter Harriman, present incumbent, who is opposed now, as in 1867, by Judge John G. Sinclair. Gen. Harriman was elected in 1867 by a majority of 3,146 in a total vote of 68,608.

The Executive Committee of the Republican party has published the following estimate of the vote for the present year: Harriman 38,437; Sinclair, 35,203. doubtful, 2,801. The Democratic Executive Committee, on the contrary, have published its estimate as follows: Sinclair, 36,183; Harriman 33,209; doubtful 2,506.

We can, of course, give nothing more than an opinion in the matter, basing that on information gained from Northern papers and from private sources. We hope for a Democratic triumph, since it is almost impossible to estimate the influence of such a victory on the grand struggle in November.

THE conduct of Mr. Wade, in demanding to be admitted to act and vote as a member of the impeachment court, has excited the disgust of all men who have any regard for decency. Whatever may be our opinion as to his right thus to act, delicacy and self-respect should have led him to refuse to sit as a member of a court where his personal interests were involved. We are glad to learn that the question of his removal from his place as President of the Senate is mooted, and that several Republican members of that body have expressed themselves favorable towards the proposition. It is sincerely to be hoped that it will be carried into effect, and that some man with more regard for propriety and public opinion may be chosen to succeed Mr. Johnson, should the latter be deposed.

THE citizens of Baltimore (may God bless them for their good deeds to the unfortunate people of the South,) had a grand meeting at the Front street Theatre, on Wednesday, to protest against the proceedings of Congress in the matter of impeachment. Mayor Banks presided, assisted by over one hundred of the most public spirited gentlemen of the city. Resolutions sustaining the President were unanimously adopted. Earnest and thrilling speeches were made by several Democratic members of Congress, Gov. Swann and others. The people of Maryland very justly feel a deep interest in the progress of events in American politics. If the Radicals succeed in their crusade upon the rights and liberties of the people of the South, they will visit vengeance upon Maryland and Kentucky. The tremendous Democratic majorities in those States are exceedingly distasteful to Radicals, and their consciences are not too rigid to prevent the framing of a pretext by which to defraud south-side Kentuckians and Marylanders of their rights also.

THE CAPITOL MONKEY SHOW.

(BY OUR SPECIAL REPORTER UNDER THE TABLE.)

[The reader is particularly requested to remember the fact that no Reporter for this paper is allowed on the floor, in the halls or in the galleries of the Convention, and consequently our reports are made from under the table, behind the scenes, or as may be otherwise ordered and convenient.]

FORTY-SIXTH DAY.

EVENING ENTERTAINMENT.

FRIDAY, March 7.

Menagerie thrown open, cages unbarred and ring cleared and saw-dusted by the secritors for circrs performances, at precisely half past seven o'clock by Cuffee Mayo's chronometer.

[This time-piece, by the way, is about as large and loud in the face as an old-fashioned Connecticut clock.]

Ring-master Kowles, emerging from the dressing room with unkempt locks, drew the fluttering, drapery of his robe de nuit hurriedly about him; borrowed Galloways wool-card and retired precipitately to complete his toilette.

When this had been adjusted to his satisfaction, the Manager re-appeared.

Roll call disclosed the presence of ninety and one of the animals belonging to this unparalleled collection.

The special order was announced, being the Homestead ordinance on its third reading.

Jones, of Caldwell, moved to amend the first section by making the Homestead prospective.

Hood, Egyptian, opposed the amendment, and said the cry was the Convention could not make a retrospective homestead, and have it to accord with the constitution of the United States. Now he was jest as anxious as any member on the floor, for people to pay their debts, but he didn't want to make beggars of them. He would like to know if the bill, as it stood, didn't prevent a person who had no homestead, from getting one.

Trogden, Rad, was in favor of the amendment. He wanted a homestead law passed, but not a retrospective one. The legal talent of the State concurred in the opinion that putting a retrospective homestead in the Constitution, would prevent the adoption of that instrument. He regarded retrospective homesteads as repudiation.

Rodman, mean white, said he had heretofore supported all relief measures. He was in favor of a retrospective homestead, and hoped the members would stand by him and put it through.

McDonald, Chatham ass, said it seemed to him that some "dilligitts" were determined to do all in their power to keep the people from gittin any relief at all. Members got up every time the subject was broached, with the cry of "repudiation" and "unconstitutional." He considered all this as unnecessary. The people were demanding relief and they should have it. In the event we frame a constitution to suit the new order of things, it would doubtless be received and then we would ask the Courts no odds.

Heaton (Piannissimo, i. e., very softly) said gentlemen talked a great deal about relief. He did not believe there was a member in this hall who would not favor some measure of substantial relief, and he had no doubt but what, before the convention adjourned, it would adopt some measure of relief. He favored the amendment and said the constitution did not provide for anything of a retroactive nature. The amendment was designed to show that homesteads would not be retroactive, but prospective. He did'nt want this matter left in doubt.

May, Rev-Wolf in sheeps clothing, made a speech in his usual style, and said the cry of repudiation was raised whenever anything of a retrospective nature was brought up. He favored and would vote for a retrospective homestead, as he believed it to be the only one that would be of any benefit to the people. He did not believe Congress would reject a retrospective homestead.

Abbott, Shaker, said the last time the subject was before the convention he understood it to have been fairly settled. Gentlemen had not changed their opinions. He also approved the amendment, and desired the matter left as it stood—if it was unconstitutional it would go to the courts and be settled; while if it was constitutional it would be that much the better. He desired to act justly. He did not deem the government stern and tyrannical but kind and parental.

King, of Lenoir, was opposed to repudiation, but was in favor of a retrospective homestead. Hoped the matter would be settled, and was willing to leave it to the courts.

Harris, Jeemes Henry, Nigger, was opposed to repudiation, but favored a retrospective homestead. It was argued on this floor that by such a homestead they would be impairing the obligation of contracts. Now, have we not already impaired the obligation of contracts? Other gentlemen opposed it because they considered it unconstitutional, and it would be of no effect. Why oppose it, if it would not be of any effect?

Jones, of Caldwell, said the proposition you favor gives a homestead of $1500?

Harris, nigger, of Wake—Yes, sir. It was a fixed fact that the rich and the poor were embarrassed and something must be done to give them relief.

Rodman, mean white, simply wished to say that he would vote against the amendment.

Mr. Hodnett said it had been contended that every body will have to take a new start. Now, I am opposed to one part starting with all the lands, while the poor are to have nothing. There was a good deal more in the vote about to be taken, than many supposed. The soundness of the public treasury depended greatly on this measure. The poor men were the ones who would suffer; and he would tell gentlemen here, that repudiation of the public debt was far more popular than the repudiation of private debts.

Abbott (Shaker-Yank.) Neow du tell! Du you consider that the report is tinctured with repudiation?

Mr. Hodnett. I do most emphatically think so.

Cuffee Mayo (Nigger) said he wanted ter call der retention of dilligitts who are clamoring so much 'bout impudiation, to de case ob der rich man an' Lazarus, mentioned in de Bible. He could'nt see how dilligitts could be opposed to doin all they could for de people who are in need. Dey had better take keer or dey'd wake up some of these cold mornins from their gross negligence and find theirselves a occupyin de place dat rich man did, when he 'pealed to Mars Abraham from de burnin pit for water ter cool his tongue wid.

Pool, Tom-tit, said he would be glad to see a retrospective homestead established, and the people relieved of their embarrassment.

Mr. Nicholson favored Jones' amendment—was opposed to retrospective homesteads—deemed them unconstitutional, &c.

Forkner, Forky-dear! said if they intended giving relief, he wanted it given to all. He repeated the statement made the other day, that he believed a retrospective homestead, a violation of the obligations of contracts. If this were no so, why not adopt the amendment.

French, (Splay-foot) of Bladen, offered two or three unimportant amendments, which were adopted.

The vote was then taken on the amendment as amended, and it was rejected, ayes 34, noes 65.

Ayes—Messrs. Aydlott, Barnes, Bradley, Candler, Colgrove, Cox, Daniel, Ellis, Forkner, French of Rockingham, Gabagan, Glover, Graham of Orange, Grant of Northampton, Hare, Heaton, Hodnett, Hollowell, Ing, Jones of Caldwell, King, of Lincoln, Logan, McCubbins, Mullican, Nicholson, Petre, Renfrow, Rhodes, Robbins, Rose, Sweet, Teague, Trogden and Tucker.

Noes—Messrs. Abbott, Andrews, Ashley, Baker, Blume, Bryan, Carey, Carter, Cherry, Chillson, Congleton, Dickey, Dowd, Durham, Eppes, Etheridge, Fisher, Franklin, French of Bladen, French of Chowan, Galloway, George, Graham of Montgomery, Grant of Wayne, Harris of Wake, Harris of Franklin, Hay, Hayes of Robeson, Hayes of Halifax, Highsmith, Hobbs, Hoffler, Hood, Hyman, King of Lenoir, Kinney, Legg, Long, Mann, May, Mayo, Merritt, McDonald of Chatham, McDonald of Moore, Moore, Morton, Murphy, Parks, Pool, Ragland, Ray, Read, Rich, Rodman, Sanderlin, Smith, Sully, Stillwell, Taylor, Tourgee, Turner, Watts, Welker and Williamson.

The section was then adopted, ayes 76, noes 16.

Ayes—Messrs. Abbott, Andrews, Ashley, Adylott, Baker, Blume, Bradley, Bryan, Carey, Carter, Cherry, Chillson, Colgrove, Congleton, Daniel, Dickey, Dowd, Etheridge, Fisher, Franklin, French, of Bladen, French, of Chowan, Galloway, George, Graham, of Montgomery, Graham, of Orange, Grant, of Wayne, Grant, of Northampton, Gully, Gunter, Hare, Harris, of Wake, Harris, of Franklin, Hayes, of Robeson, Heaton, Highsmith, Hobos, Hoffler, Hollowell, Hood, Jones, of Caldwell, King, of Lenoir, Kinney, Lee, Legg, Long, Mann, May, Mayo, Marshall, McCubbins, Merritt, McDonald, of Chatham, McDonald, of Moore, Moore, Morton, Mullican, Murphy, Nance, Newsom, Patrick, Parks, Petree, Peterson, Pierson, Ragland, Ray, Read, Rich, Robbins, Rodman, Stilly, Stilwee, Sweet, Tourgee, Tucker, Turney, Watts, Welker, Williams.

Noes—Messrs. Candler, Cox, Forkner, French, of Rockingham, Fullings, Gabagan, Glover, Hayes of Halifax, Ing, King, of Lincoln, Logan, Nicholson, Rhodes, Rose, Smith, Teague—16.

After much discussion and the adoption of sundry amendments of no special importance, the whole article was adopted by a vote of 63 ayes, 18 noes.

King (fat—forty at least, and trooly loil—"darding the lean earth as he walks along") gave notice that on to-morrow he would move to rescind the vote limiting in debate all delegates except chairmen of committees.

Kalvin here awoke from his uneasy slumbers in the chair—remanded the varmints to their dirty dens—bawled for Bail and Jim Jones to put out the lights, and put out himself, to have another night of it at Joseph's.

FORTY-SEVENTH DAY.

MORNING PERFORMANCE.

* * * * * *

Renfrow, sneak, boot-lick and deserter, a resolution in regard to mechanics lien.

The Tourgee, a resolution to purchase parchment to receive the marks (only a few of the Konvenshuners can write their names) of delegates to those sections of the constitution that have been adopted.

Adopted.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

Praise-God-bare-bones-Ashley called up the report of the committee on printing, providing for the election of Public printer.

Adopted.

The election of printer to the Konvenshun being in order, Johnny McDonald, the Chatham fice, in spite of the snubbing of William pere, nominated Joseph William, fils; and Captain Plato Durham nominated Major John W. Dunham, white man and editor of The North Carolinian.

The bob-tail "hoss" held the inside track, got the start, and distanced Thorough-bred by so many lengths that this reporter couldn't count 'em.

The report on towns, counties, &c., was adopted.

SPECIAL ORDER—FINANCE.

Sections 1, 2 and 3 of the finance committee's report were adopted.

The substitute for section No. 4 as amended, was adopted, ayes 62; noes, 30. The following is the substitute as amended:

"SEC. 4. Until the bonds of the State shall be at par, the General Assembly shall have no power to contract any new debt or pecuniary obligation in behalf of the State, except to supply a casual deficit, or for suppressing invasion or insurrection, unless it shall in the same bill levy a special tax to pay the interest annually.

And the General Assembly shall have no power to give or lend the credit of the State in aid of any person, association or corporation, except to aid in the completion of such railroads and other works of internal improvement as may be unfinished, at the time of the adoption of this constitution, and in which the State has a direct pecuniary interest, unless the subject be submitted to a direct vote of the people of the State, and be approved by a majority of those who shall vote thereon."

Sections 6, 7 and 8 adopted.

The article, as a whole, was then put and adopted by a vote of 77 to 20.

French, the big-footed Bladen Yank, introduced an ordinance providing for the punishment of any one who shall attempt to intimidate by threats or otherwise, voters to keep them from the polls. Ordered to be printed.

Manager Kowles then announced the farce adjourned until 7½ o'clock this evening.

The Reporter of the Richmond Whig, on hearing the telegraphic announcement that Barnum & Van Amburgh's Museum had been burned, hastened to the Capitol to note the effect of this melancholy intelligence upon the Virginia gorillas. He expected to find the hall heavily draped in the sablest weeds of mourning—he expected to see at least a yard of black crape floating in dusky folds from every angular elbow to every ebo-shin. He expected that his ears would be wounded and his heart melted within him, by the groans and wailings and sobbings of the disconsolate animals, over the sudden and awful destruction that had befallen their kinsfolk. He records his disappointment thusly, acknowledging his previous ignorance of the nature of the beasts:

"On entering the Convention Hall to-day we expected to find the black and tan members in tears, their heads bowed with 'a weight of woe,' and their bodies clothed with the habiliments of deep mourning, for their illustrious compeer from Africa who perished in the flames of Barnum's Museum Monday night. But to our surprise there was no 'jected 'haviour of the visage' to be seen. All the blackness visible was in the countenances of the soup eaters in the galleries, and the negro delegates on the floor. There was no abatement of the levity which always prevails, and therefore we were forced to conclude that the Convention had not been apprised of the death of the gorilla. No doubt suitable resolutions of regret will be introduced to-morrow."

[From the Raleigh Sentinel.]

To the People of North Carolina:

FELLOW CITIZENS:—I beg that my friends, throughout the State, will not allow themselves to be irritated or disturbed, for a moment, by the cowardly and mendacious assaults of William W. Holden, of Raleigh, the Radical candidate for Governor, upon my personal and private character, as a Christian minister and gentleman, or my public character. I feel as calm and as unhurt by his slanderous and libellous assaults as an innocent child. His falsehood and mendacity, as to myself, I can make palpable to every honest mind, if I cared to notice him. My friends know this. I beg them not to retaliate by abuse or by offering him or his any personal injury, but that they will go to work to bring their friends to the polls, to vote him and the Radical Constitution down.

The cause of his attacks lies deep in his hatred to the Sentinel, because it has been somewhat instrumental, in the past, in his defeat. I know not why Providence keeps me in a position I do not love or desire, but to labor to defeat William W. Holden, and to sustain the cause of truth and right, and the interests of the white people of the State, and of all our people. With the help of Providence, the Sentinel will do its duty in the coming contest. WM. E. PELL.

Raleigh, March 6, 1868.

NEWS AND MISCELLANY.

TRIAL OF MR. DAVIS.—At the last calling of the case of the United States against Jefferson Davis, in the Federal court in this city (last November,) the trial was postponed at the instance of the Government, to Thursday, the 26th inst., in order, as was stated, to afford the Chief Justice of the United States an opportunity to be present and conduct the trial. It was also agreed betwen the counsel of the respective parties and the court, that if, as the day approached, it should be ascertained that the Chief Justice could not attend on the day named, the case should be informally adjourned to some other day, without requiring the presence of the accused or his counsel. If we are correctly informed, a letter was received here some days ago from Judge Chase stating that it would be out of his power to be here on the 26th of March, and suggesting a postponement to the 9th of April. But since that letter was written the impeachment proceedings against the President have been instituted, requiring the presence of Judge Chase in Washington for an indefinite period. It is therefore impossible to say when the case of Mr. Davis will be tried.—Probably never; almost certainly not till after the Presidential election.—Richmond Whig.

Garibaldi was a secret agent; or, in plain terms, a spy for the Federal government during the late war. We are indebted to Mr. Seward for the information, who handed in the name of Garibaldi, together with others, to Congress.

On the 26th of February there assembled in New Orleans the convention of railroad officials for the purpose of arranging a schedule for connections and rapid communication between that city and New York.

The object of the convention was accomplished and the time between New York and New Orleans will hereafter be three and a half days, leaving New Orleans at 4.30 P. M. and arriving in New York at 5 A. M.

The traveller can thus leave one of these cities on Monday after dinner and be in the other by by day-light on the following Friday.

Benjamin Disraeli, the new British Premier, is not, as a paragraph going the rounds of the press says he is, an Israelite in faith. His father, Isaac Disraeli, (the celebrated author of "Quarrels of Authors," and many other works,) embraced Christianity some years before Benjamin's birth; and the Premier himself declared, during a cross-examination in court about four years ago, "I am, what I have always been, a Christian."

MORE ELECTIONS IN NEW YORK.—Fishkill, N. Y., March 4.—The result of the town election in this place is a Democratic victory and splendid Democratic gain. The whole Democratic ticket is elected by an average majority of 174. Our gain on supervisor is near 200.

Port Jervis, N. Y., March 4.—At the municipal election held here yesterday the whole Democratic ticket was elected by an average majority of 80. Last fall the Republican majority was 7.

Newbury, N. Y., March 4.—The Republican majority in the election here is only 32. Last fall it was 143. The Democratic gain is, therefore, 111.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.—Concord, N. H., March 3.—The situation appears to be hopeful in the highest degree. The leading Democrats unanimously anticipate a victory. They are putting their money heavily against Harriman, and from such a rapid survey as I have been enabled to make, I do not see any reason to doubt the correctness of their calculations. Their latest estimate gives the Democratic candidate a majority of 2,974 upon a total of 71,000 votes. The Radicals talk of polling a vote of 76,500; upon which, of course; they claim a very large majority.—Correspondence of the New York World.

JEFFERSON DAVIS IN NEW ORLEANS.—New Orleans, March 4.—Jefferson Davis is here. All the fire companies, who were out on their annual parade, as they passed the St. Charles Hotel, gave him repeated cheers. As they passed General Hancock's headquarters they took off their hats and the bands played "The Bonnie Blue Flag."

It will be gratifying to the members of the Protestant Episcopal church of the State to learn that the Rev. Dr. Whittle, of Louisville, Ky., has determined to accept the office of Assistant Bishop of Virginia. It has been proposed by Bishop Johns, if agreeable to the presiding bishop and others concerned, that the consecration take place on Thursday, April 30th, in St. Paul's church, Alexandria. So says the Alexandria Gazette.

The London Quarterly Review, replying to an essay by Goldwin Smith, who cites Lincoln, Grant, Sherman and Stanton(!) as examples of American great men, says:

"We admit that Mr. Stanton and his colleagues have done great things on a great scale, but they lack the stamp of individual greatness. If that is to be found anywhere in America, it is under the modest roof of Gen. Lee, the champion of the lost cause, whom prosperity never intoxicated, nor adversity depressed, and who exceeded his opponent as much in real nobility and greatness of character as he did in military skill and daring.

MARRIED.

On Thursday evening, the 5th of March, in Goldsboro', N. C., at the residence of the bride's mother, by the Rev. L. McKinnon, Mr. JAMES W. GULICK to MRS. SUSAN H. ADAMS, all of Goldsboro'.

OUR NOON DISPATCHES.

Glorious News!

Great Rejoicing in Israel To-Day!

The Northern Democracy EVERYWHERE TRIUMPHANT!!

WASHINGTON, March 7.

Northern Democratic papers are flaming with display lines, announcing Democratic victories and gains in municipal elections.

The Republican papers are denouncing the Associated Press reporters as partisans.

A close reading made here shows unmistakably that the Democrats have gained immensely, and the gains are so widespread as to preclude the idea that local issues have controlled the results to any great extent, or that the agents of the Press have failed to forward truthful news.

OUR MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, March 7.

SENATE.—Mr. Sumner presented a petition from citizens of North Carolina, asking the removal of the political disabilities of the Hon. John Pool, Senator elect. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

There are tenure-of-office complications connected with the Idaho governorship, which were discussed and finally laid on the table.

Pension appropriations were discussed at great length. Adjourned.

HOUSE.—The session was devoted entirely to debate.

Washington Items.

WASHINGTON, March 7.

This evening's "Star" says: Gen. Lorenzo Thomas will hereafter attend the Cabinet Meetings as Secretary of War ad interim and business pertaining to the War Department will be transacted through him by the President.

Revenue to-day $273,000. For the week $5,500,000. For the year $135,000,000.

The summons was not served on the President to-day. He will answer by attorney on Friday and demand reasonable time for preparation.

An avalanche at Key Stone Sierra, California, buried seventeen and killed five persons. Several buildings were destroyed.

Senator Vickers, of Maryland, has arrived.—He will present his credentials on Monday. His admission is certain.

A light will be exhibited on the 9th inst., from Screw Pile Light House at the South end of Horse Shoe Shoal, at the mouth of the Cape Fear river. The light will be visible eleven miles. Fog bell will be rung every ten seconds during fog.

The Senate considered the nomination of S. S. Cox, as Minister to Austria yesterday, but failed to confirm him.

Julia Dean, a celebrated actress, is dead. She was 37 years of age.

The new Georgia case against Gen. Meade comes up next Friday.

The decision in the McCardle case is expected two weeks from next Monday.

Democrats here seem confident of success in New Hampshire on Tuesday.

Virginia Convention.

RICHMOND, March 7.

The case of Williams, the conservative member who refused to vote yesterday, was taken up. During its consideration Leggett, Conservative, from Rockingham, refused to vote on the ground of contempt and disgust for the proposition. He afterwards added: I have a contempt for the whole establishment. He was expelled in about 15 minutes by a vote of ayes 54, nays 16. Williams' case was referred to a committee.

A republican moved to reconsider the vote by which the disfranchising clause was adopted.—Two negroes opposed, saying they had heard that a telegram had been received from Washington saying, "that the vote must be reconsidered, and this motion was the result." The whole question was postponed until next Thursday.

Mississippi Convention.

JACKSON, MISS., Mar. 7.

A section has been put in the tax ordinance authorizing the State Treasurer to pay the convention. Warrants are already issued. A telegram was received from Gen. Gillem's Adjutant recommending some provision for their payment. A negro delegate introduced a resolution, which was adopted, setting forth that some persons formerly slaves had acquired property in 1863-64, which had been taken by their masters, and requesting Gen. Gillem to issue an order compelling restoration or payment of value.

Baltimore Conference.

BALTIMORE, March 7.

The Baltimore Conference of the Methodist Church, South, adjourned to-day. The book concern is badly in debt. Suit will be brought for a share of funds of the preacher's aid and preacher's fund society. A division has been refused on the ground that the charter forbids it. The amount involved is $50,000. The claim is considered good, but legal proceedings will be prolonged.

Negro Representatives.

WASHINGTON, March 7.

The Tribune originates a curious point concerning negro Representatives and Senators. Their admission involves the question when they became citizens. The constitution requires seven and nine years citizenship as qualification.

Appointments in Virginia.

RICHMOND, May 7.

Gen. Schofield has appointed several magistrates to fill vacancies. The appointees are old residents.

Ex-President Pierce says the Democrats of New Hampshire have been strengthened by the turn things have taken at Washington.

The Festival of the Purim.

The festival of the Purim, commemorative of the delivery of the Israelites from the wrath of Haman, occurs to-day. The Jews usually celebrate it as a season of entertainment. Presents are exchanged and alms given to the poor. We suppose our Jewish fellow-citizens will duly observe it.

New Advertisements.

We direct attention to the new advertisements in this issue—

Bottimore, Marrow & Co., Atlantic Block, Main street, Norfolk, Va., wholesale dealers in Boots and Shoes.

Whitehead, Turner & Co., No. 42 Iron Front, west side of Market Square, Norfolk, Va., wholesale dealers in Boots, Shoes, Hats and Trunks.

These business houses are among the most prosperous on the Virginia seaboard and we can recommend them to the favorable consideration of our people who have trade relations with that city.

Republican Nomination.

The Radicals had a meeting at the court house last night. The room was crowded with negroes, but few pale-faces being present. Mark Williams presided, and Wm. Anderson acted as secretary. Speeches were made by Wm. M. Coleman, Greasy Sammie Watts, the Tourgee, Friday Jones and Jos. Wm. Holden. Booker Hutchings tendered his declination as a candidate for the Legislature, and Jim Harris was nominated in his stead. Negroes are not good enough to go to Congress, but are "plenty good enough" for North Carolina legislators.

When we came to this city and undertook to clean out the Augean stables, we were well enough aware that we had a Herculean task before us. It was a nasty business, but we girded ourselves and plunged in. Our labors have been attended with astonishing success. The patriots constituting "the party of great moral ideas" had been stealing furniture, hogs and mules, and committing rapes and other enormities to a frightful extent; and the plague was creeping along up among the League-men, and the U. H. O. A. generally, so that the danger became really alarming. Crime was becoming universal and the examples of those high in authority was generally quoted as sanctioning those felonies. We attempted to show that the perpetrators of these heinous offences against society ought not to complain of "social ostracism," and could not consistently feel contempt for any body. We have succeeded beyond our most sanguine expectations. We are not omnipresent, and do not arrogate to ourselves omniscience. We do not know that the facts so vehemently denied are true. Neither do we know that there is such a city in France as Paris. But there are highly respectable rumors of both. We should be very sorry to be pronounced, in a public menagerie, calumniators and liars, should we happen to state that there was such a city as Paris, because we might not have the witness at our back to prove it. It would hurt our feelings amazingly. It might produce a little confusion. But we devoutly believe in Paris, nevertheless.

There is a mode known among gentlemen of vindicating honor that savors less of blackguardism than a resort to coarse vituperation by way of set off. Most gentlemen prefer that mode, especially honorable army officers.

The Eighth Commandment at least is reinstated in the Decalogue, and becoming respectable once more, amidst all our other demoralizations. The numerous disavowals of these very naughty ways lately, made with such vituperative energy and indignation, satisfy us that these vile practices are by no means so popular as we supposed. We therefore congratulate ourselves upon having accomplished a great work; and the public, we are sure, will thank us for the wonderful success of our poor efforts in effecting this salutary reform, among the professors of "great moral ideas." Accepting these demonstrations of approval from a grateful people, we take new courage, and shall go on our way rejoicing. Stealing is a subtle science, and as it will hereafter, in consequence of our patriotic efforts, require more skill, we trust that it will be practiced with less frequency. Vulgar stealing, we rejoice to know, is becoming disreputable. As to robbing our State Treasury, that is beyond our reach, having the sanction of law. It must continue to disgorge at the rate of eight dollars per day for ordinary field hands, as well as for those of less value, so long as itching palms and India rubber consciences last.

The Warrenton Indicator says "there are no less than forty-six houses and tracts of land in Warren county to be sold, under execution, early in April; and predicts that men actually worth ten or fifteen thousand dollars will be sold out and ruined to pay debts of one or two thousand. In view of this distressing condition of affairs throughout the State, (for it is by no means confined to the county of Warren,) the Indicator asks, Where is King Canby?

Heavy Conundrum.

Why is Johnny McDonald like an ass?

Five dollars will be given for the best answer to the above, to be sent into this office by Tuesday next.

P. S.—In justice to Mack, we announce that no solution from Deweese will be entertained.

Rally of White Men in Northampton.

On Monday last there was a large and enthusiastic meeting of the white men of Northampton county, at Jackson, the county seat, to ratify the nominations of the State Executive committee. That sterling democrat and gallant soldier and patriot, Gen. Matt W. Ransom, presided.

Gen. Ransom, Col. Spruill and W. W. Peebles, Esq., made able and eloquent speeches. District committees were appointed, and preparations made for a thorough canvass of the county.

Goods News from Pitt.

We learn with pleasure that there was an enthusiastic rally of the white man's party at Greenville, Pitt county, last week. Able speeches were made by Hon. Sion H. Rogers, Attorney General, F. B. Satterthwaite, Esq., and others. The white men of Pitt are fully aroused, and will do their whole duty on the day of election.

Gin'ral Dockery—familiarly known as "Old Gwanny"—from his some what peculiar pronunciation of the word Guano—is intensely disgusted by the greed of his Yankee associates. He was always in favor of everybody's having their share of the public lands, but is horrified by the fact that free Yankee interlopers aspire to congressional seats from North Carolina—and another to the Senatorial Toga. "Old Gwanny," will vote the nigger ticket, Governor and all, but it goes terribly against the grain.

Smoke-house Robbery.

On Wednesday night last, the smoke-house of B. F. Hooks, Esq., of Wayne county was entered and robbed of forty pieces of bacon, being all that he had. The News, speaking of this robbery, says: "We look for something like this every day until after the State elections, for the negro is bound to eat, and the scallawag leaguers have already summoned him to attend daily meetings of the League in order to secure a great Radical victory, when the forty acres of land and the mule will be given each negro."

Cane-ing.

Our cotemporary of the Roanake News has been the recipient of another cane-ing recently. No matter for Stone; he's a hard case and richly deserved it.

Criminal Calendar for Edgecombe Superior Court.

The Tarboro Southerner says that three capital cases will probably be tried at Edgecombe Superior Court next week. The parties are all negroes—two charged with murder and the other with rape upon a white woman. In addition to this Taylor and Knight heretofore convicted of the murder of John A. Cutchin in 1866, will be resentenced, the Supreme Court having affirmed the judgment of the court below.

The Southerner thinks that these facts presen "a striking commentary upon the lawlessness of the times," and justly ascribes the fearful increase of crimes in our midst to radical misrule.

The Conservative white men of Anson county will hold a mass meeting at Wadesboro on Tuesday next, to ratify the nominations of the State Convention, and perfect their plans of organization for a vigorous county canvass.

The Argus announces the death of Dr. Wm. H. Glass, at his residence in Wadesboro, on the 2d instant, from congestion of the brain. Dr. Glass was fifty-one years of age, was a native of Caswell county, but had resided in Wadesboro' since 1838, practicing his profession with eminent success. He leaves no children.

Among the graduates of the Medical College of South Carolina at its recent commencement, we notice, from this State, the names of Dr. E. A. Covington, of Anson, and Dr. Farq. Smith, of Harnett.

Difference of Opinion.

The seed has been sown, and by proper attention a bountiful harvest will be gathered. The stereotype answer of children (i. e. little kinkheads) in the nigger schools to the question, "What do you intend to do when you grow up to be men and women, and become educated?" has been "I am going to be a teacher." This is in my (Be-a-nigger-dear Gen. Miles') opinion the key-note to the fulfilment of a work conceived in the mind of God, and is among the events which will result in "Ethiopia stretching out her hands to God."—Gen. Miles' Opinion.

We think it will result in "Ethiopia stretching out" his hands to somebody's smoke-house or corn-crib ev-e-y time.—The Carolinian's Opinion.

Randolph Awaking.

We are in receipt of private advices from the county of Randolph—heretofore deemed a very Gibraltar of Radicalism, which indicate a great revulsion of public sentiment. Men who have heretofore acted with the black Republican party, have become thoroughly ashamed of past co-operation with it, and are now determined to resist for all time to come, and with all their might the shameless advocates of negro equality and negro supremacy in North Carolina. They have at last discovered the truth that a few bankrupt political hacks, false alike to their color and to the State of their nativity, are leagued with vagabond, carpet-bag adventurers from other States, plotting their own political advancement, and seeking to rebuild their desperate fortunes, by prostrating every thing that is noble, and blasting all that is good in North Carolina. This news from Randolph is cheering; and unless we are sadly deceived the white men of that county will redeem it on the day of election from the least and last remains of Negroism!

More Military Despotism.

It was stated recently that the military authorities at Goldsboro had removed Sheriff Snow of Halifax county and appointed one John A. Reed in his stead. This statement was incorrect. Mr. Snow resigned his office at a recent session of the county court, and the magistrates elected Mr. Benjamin F. Gary to fill the vacancy. Mr. Gary, whose appointment gave universal satisfaction, filed his bond, appointed his deputies, and proceeded to the regular discharge of his official duties. The officer commanding the district, hearing of this appointment by the county court, sets aside the election, arbitrarily, and appoints to the sheriffalty Mr. John A. Reed. We gather the foregoing facts from the Roanoke News, which, commenting indignantly upon this outrage, says:—"Thus are the reins of government being tightened around us, the civil must yield to the military, and the will of the people is no longer to be recognized in our midst."

Dr. John Wilson, Principal of the celebrated Wilson school, at Melville, Alamance, has written to Rev. T. B. Kingsbury, editor of the Warrenton Indicator, offering to educate, free of charge, any young man of the Baptist church whom he may recommend. He also proposes to reduce the price of board to FIVE dollars per month. The generosity of Dr. Wilson is heightened in this instance by the fact that he is a member of the Presbyterian church.

Gen. D. H. Hill having purchased the interest of Jas. P. Irwin and Capt. J. G. Morrison in The Land e Love,w succeeds to the exclusive proprietorship of that able and popular Southern Magazine. Success to North Carolina's gallant son. Long may he wave! May his heart grow lighter and his purse heavier the longer he lives; and may he flourish long after the petty tyrants now "robed in a little brief authority" shall have sunk into nothings and become but

"A school-boy's tale, the wonder of an hour."

Mrs. Sallie Harris, living at Cedar Bluff, Cherokee county, is the oldest person now living in Alabama. She is one hundred and thirty years old. She is a native of Edgecombe county, this State.

PROSPECTUS.

THE

NORTH CAROLINIAN,

A DAILY,

Democratic Newspaper,

PUBLISHED AT

RALEIGH, N. C.

W. A. HEARNE, JOHN W. DUNHAM,

EDITORS.

The NORTH CAROLINIAN is Democratic in its principles. It is unalterably opposed to Negro Suffrage, Military rule, and Reconstruction upon the basis of Congressional enactment.

Its Editors believe and teach that this is a

WHITE MAN'S GOVERNMENT,

FRAMED BY THE BRAINS, AND

WON BY THE BLOOD OF WHITE MEN,

FOR THE BENEFIT OF WHITE MEN,

AND THAT IT SHOULD BE

CONTROLLED BY WHITE MEN ONLY.

As there is but ONE NATIONAL ORGANIZATION professing these sentiments and committed to their maintenance, the NORTH CAROLINIAN will steadily advocate the abandonment of all other party names and organizations, and yield a hearty co-operation with that organization—the NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC PARTY.

THE NORTH CAROLINIAN,

Will contain the freshest News, by telegraph and otherwise. Full reports of all Legislative Assemblies will be furnished its readers.

Particular attention will be paid to State news, and each number will contain a complete epitome of every incident reported in the State press.

MARKETS will be carefully reported.

The Weekly North Carolinian

Is the largest and handsomest paper in the State and will be filled with choice family reading and selected literary matter.

ROSADALIS WILL CURE THE WORST CASES OF SCROFULA. READ THE STATEMENT BELOW, AND DESPAIR NOT.

WILSON COUNTY, Sept. 10, 1867.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE:
Dear Sir—My youngest daughter, aged five years, has been dreadfully afflicted with Scrofula nearly all her life. I tried a great many Physicians, but without relieving her much; in fact, most of them said there was no hope of cure.—During the last Spring she was worse than ever, her body and limbs being covered with sores and blotches—with face and eyes badly ulcerated and swollen. Whilst in this condition, I was advised by Dr. L. A. Stith to try your Rosadalis. I at once procured three bottles, and commenced giving it to her. The effect was magical. In less than a month, to our great astonishment, she was entirely well.
I am, sir,
Yours, with respect and gratitude,
W. W. BURNETT.

ROSADALIS CURES ALL SKIN DISEASES.

WILSON, N. C., Sept. 15, 1867.

DR. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir:—In 1862 my son, now aged five years, was vaccinated with what proved to be impure matter, which completely destroyed his health. He has been afflicted with an inveterate and extremely troublesome Eruption of the Skin, sometimes breaking out in sores, &c. Rosadalis was prescribed by my family physician—Dr. A. D. Moore. After taking it a few weeks, my son became and remains entirely well.
Yours truly,
J. B. DANIEL.

CHRONIC LIVER COMPLAINT CURED.

This is to certify that I was cured of Chronic Liver Complaint by Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis, after having been confined to my bed and house for a long time, and trying various medicines without benefit.
I know of several others in this County, cured through the use of the Rosadalis, and it can be found in nearly every house in my neighborhood, and they all praise it as a great medicine.
THOMAS THORN.

ROSADALIS IS A POTENT REMEDY IN ALL CHRONIC DISEASES.

From G. W. Blount, Esq., Attorney at Law, Wilson, N. C.

I have been cured of Chronic Inflamation of the ear and Partial Deafness, of ten years' standing, by ROSADALIS. GEO. W. BLOUNT.

ROSADALIS WILL CURE THE VERY WORST CASES OF CHRONIC RHEUMATISM.

I hereby certify that I was cured of long standing Chronic Rheumatism, by taking four bottles of Dr. Lawrence's ROSADALIS.
JAMES WILLS.
Wilson, N. C., May 6, 1867.

☞ The ROSADALIS thoroughly eradicates every kind of humor and bad taint, and restores the entire system to a healthy condition.
IT IS PERFECTLY HARMLESS, never producing the slightest injury.
☞ It is not a Secret Quack Remedy. The articles of which it is made are published around each bottle, and it is used and endorsed by the leading Physicians everywhere it is known.

40 YEARS.

Deems' Southern Hepatic Pills, are made and sold by the discoverer, that old and well-tried remedy for all diseases caused by DISEASED LIVER, which is attended with all the symptoms of Consumptions. In 1825 the Discoverer was reduced to a mere skeleton, and was pronounced by three of the most skillful physicians of one of our largest cities, to be in an advanced stage of Consumption, and beyond cure. He then began to try experiments on himself, and after many efforts discovered (by the help of an Indian) the remedy which wrought in him a perfect cure. He is now in the 78th year of his age, and at this advanced stage of life retains an excellent constitution. In 32 years itinerating in the ministry, he has seen more than a thousand persons, who were given up to die of Consumption as beyond cure, dragging out a miserable existence, not knowing what ailed them, they were cured by these Hepatic Pills, and afterwards enjoyed the most perfect health.

There is in these Pills a peculiar combination with an article which has probably never before been used as a medicine. They are highly strengthening, and mild in their action on the bowels. In the preparation of these very superior and excellent Pills, no cost or trouble is spared to insure the greatest possible degree of perfection, in point of utility, excellence and comfort; the advantage in these Pills, therefore, is that a cure must be radical and complete, without the necessity of incorporating such drugs into our Pills as to break down the system in one part to remove the disease in another, and leave the patient to groan under worse diseases than heretofore. Where these Pills are known, especially in the Southern States, where they have been used so extensively, they need no recommendation, their merits are so well known by their results, which has given them a reputation that has brought them into great demand. They are therefore destined to be, at no distant day, the only remedy recognized and used by the people where billious diseases are so prevalent.

They can be sent to any point in the United States by mail or express.

Price:—25 cents per box, $2 50 per doz. By the gross, $18. The cash must either accompany the order for the Medicine, or it will be sent C. O. D. Address

LATEST NEWS TO THE FARMERS OF North Carolina.

Your attention is called to my large stock of Agricultural Implements, Iron Steel, &c., &c.

Corn and Cotton Planters, Corn Shellers, Hay, Shuck and Corn Stalk Cutters, Fan Mills, Plows, of every kind, Harrows and Cultivators, Spades, Shovels Forks, Brier Hooks, Iron Axles, Springs, Cart & Wagon Boxes, &c.

I call particular attention to Billup's Centreboard Cotton Scraper, and to Billup's Dixie Plow. The first is warranted to be the best Scraper ever yet invented, and the Farmers are requested to test its merits in connection with any other kind. The Dixie Plow is freer from choking than any other yet made; will pass through the ground with less power, and do better work than any other kind. This is no vain boast. 'Tis easy to claim superiority; hence I ask a trial.

If Farmers are not satisfied, the money will be refunded.

NOTICE TO SHIPPERS OF SPIRITS OF TURPENTINE.

The Seaboard Inland Air Line, Via Portsmouth, Va., is now prepared to ship Spirits Turpentine to Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York, its steamers having bern arranged for that purpose.

This Air Line Route, from the fact of its avoiding transshipment from one Steamer to another, to which other lines are subject, and being the direct line between the Carolinas and the Northern Cities, with daily communication to Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York, and to Boston a Steamer every five days, offers great facilities for shipping, and is in advance of all other routes from three to five days and at as low rates.

In shipping from the Northern Cities, or from Carolina, be careful to ship via Portsmouth, and by the Steamship Lines connecting with and forming part of this Route.

From Boston, Merchants and Miner's Line, E. Sampson, Agent, end Central Wharf.

From New York, Old Dominion Steamship Company, Pier 37, North river, M. L. McCready President, Office 187 Greenwich street.

From Philadelphia, Clyde Steamers, 14 South Delaware Avenue, W. P. Clyde, Agent.

Annamessic Line, Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Depot. J. L. Wilson, Agent.

From Baltimore, Bay Line Steamers, foot of Union Dock, R. L. Poor, Agent.

All claims for loss, damage, or overcharge, promptly settled by applying to
Jas. McCarrick, Trace Agent,
Seaboard Inland Air Line, Portsmouth, Va.

The Seaboard and Roanoke Railroad and Bay Line, having been consolidated under one Management from Weldon to Baltimore, offer greater facilities to shippers of freight to and from Baltimore than any other line, and guarantees safety of freight and prompt settlement of all claims.

OIL CLOTH, MATTINGS, RUGS,
WINDOW SHADES, CHILDREN'S CARRIAGES,

S. A. STEVENS,

Johnson's Hall,

MAIN STREET, NORFOLK, VIRGINIA.

We call special attention to our Fine Stock of

PAPER-HANGINGS,

CORNICES AND CURTAIN GOODS.

Our stock of the above goods is one of the most

COMPLETE AND EXTENSIVE

South of New York. It embraces all grades and the most RECENT STYLES.

Our prices are as low as can be purchased North, and we most respectfully solicit a call. We hold out extra inducements to Country Merchants, and we can fill orders on the most accommodating terms.

OUR CARPET AND OIL CLOTH DEPARTMENT

is on the lower floor—our store being 30 feet wide and 175 feet deep, and our stock comprises all grades of goods in this line, from the very cheapest Domestic to the very finest Brussels or Velvet Carpeting. We can offer especial inducements to Merchants—we will sell Carpets, Oil Cloths, &c., as low as any house in the country. We have our goods manufactured especially for us with particular regard to the style and quality best suited to our trade.

Our stock of

is the finest in this State. We have constantly on hand all widths, from 18 inches wide to 24 feet wide.

OUR FURNITURE WARE-ROOMS

are on the second floor. Our main room is the Hall, which is the handsomest and largest exhibition room in the South. It is 150 feet long by 60 feet wide. There we display the greatest variety of Household Furniture to be found South of Philadelphia, and we guarantee to compete in price, style and quality of work with any house in the country.

We call especial notice to our

PAPER-HANGING AND WINDOW SHADE DEPARTMENT.

We are constantly in receipt of all the west designs of both Foreign and Domestic Papers.

BORDERS AND FIRE SCREENS, SHADES, constantly on hand and made to order.

Our facilities for business are unsurpassed by any house, either North or South, and we invite the attention of housekeepers and the trade to our establishment, as we feel confident they will not fail to satisfy themselves that the above goods can be purchased on as favorable terms as at the North. Very Respectfully,
S. A. STEVENS,

PROSPECTUS OF THE WESTERN VINDICATOR.

On or before the 1st of March, prox., the undersigned will commence the publication of a weekly newspaper bearing the above title, in the town of Rutherfordton, N. C.

The Western Vindicator, as its name signifies, will be devoted to the support of Western interests and the dissemination of useful intelligence, selected with especial reference to the wants of the section it will labor to represent.

Politically, it will, for the present, adhere to no party organization; but will give a cheerful support to all measures looking to the speedy restoration of the Union, the preservation of the Constitution intact, the supremacy of the white race, and the perpetuity of Republican liberty in America.

The "Vindicator" will have a larger circulation in Rutherford, Polk and Cleaveland counties than any other newspaper. Advertising rates low.

Terms—$2 per annum.
